

This fixture exercises the PDF paragraph reconstruction logic. It contains a document that must be re-joined.

A second paragraph begins on a new line and continues with enough words to span multiple lines of justified text before it also reaches a clean ending.

Page two contains its own paragraph so the extractor must keep page order intact.
It ends here.
A trailing third paragraph closes the fixture document.